

“Double Standards”, 16 / 17 April 2020

Universität Salzburg, Unipark Nonntal, Erzabt-Klotz-Str. 1, A-5020 Salzburg

Thursday, 16 April	09:30–10:00	Welcome and Introduction
	10:00–11:00	Françoise Gadet (Paris, France): French and standardisation: everybody’s language but nobody’s speech
	11:00–11:30	Coffee
		Section 1	Section 2
	11:30–12:05	Derwojedowa, Magdalena (Warsaw): Written norm and usage in 19th century Polish. Evidence from a corpus.	Moser, Ann-Marie/Seiler, Guido (Zürich): How to do standard without dialect features: a third kind of dedialectization.
	12:05–12:40	Grochowska-Reiter, Anna (Poznań): Nutro or nutrisco ? Italian third conjugation: a diachronic glimpse at its standard(s) from 1400 to modern times.	Caro Reina, Javier (Cologne): The definite article with personal names in French and Spanish: a Non-Standard Average European feature?
	12:40–14:15	Lunch
	14:15–14:50	Ballarè, Silvia (Turin): Educated speakers acting against the norm? A corpus-based study of Italian relative constructions.	Lanwermeyer, Manuela (Vienna): Competing norms of standard pronunciation: results from unstressed <-ig> in Austrian Standard German.
	14:50–15:25	Fløgstad, Guro Nore (Drammen): Aspectual simplification in a normative source: the Perfect in Argentinean Spanish school grammars.	Niehaus, Konstantin (Salzburg): On the asymmetric enregistering of ‘Austrian German’ and ‘German German’.
	15:25–16:00	Hübner, Julia (Berlin): Between codified norms and norms of usage. Normativity in multilingual textbooks of the early modern period.	Pröll, Simon (Munich): The two faces of Standard German: structural consequences of nativisation.
	16:00–16:30	Coffee
	16:30–17:30	Wim Vandenbussche (Brussels, Belgium): Standard, struggle and strife. Language contact, conflict and standardization in Flanders.
19:30	Conference Dinner

“Double Standards”, 16 / 17 April 2020

Universität Salzburg, Unipark Nonntal, Erzabt-Klotz-Str. 1, A-5020 Salzburg

Friday, 17 April	09:00–10.00	Monika Wingender (Gießen, Germany): Types of Slavic standard languages – with a focus on the Russian standard between mono- and pluricentricity.
	10:00–10:15	Coffee
		Section 1	Section 2
	10:15–10:50	Pillière, Linda (Aix-Marseille): Codifying a literary standard? The gatekeeping role of copyeditors.	Lismont, Eline/Vosters, Rik (Brussels): The relationship between codified norms and language use: a framework to measure normative success.
	10:50–11:25	Calafat Vila, Rosa (Palma de Mallorca): Linguistic usage, purism and ideology. The Catalan language on social media.	Dovalil, Vit (Prague): Standard varieties as dynamic phenomena. A contribution to the methodological debate
	11:25–12.00	Fidlerová, Alena A (Prague): Which Standard for Modern Czech(s)?	Rutten, Gijsbert (Leiden): Community norms in a diaglossic universe.
	12:00–13:35	Lunch
	13:35–14:10	Starčević, Anđel/Kapović, Mate/Sarić, Daliborka (Zagreb): The one and only : prescriptivism and mono-ideologies of language.	Vari, Judit (Bangor): Norms of usage and codified norms manifesting in explicit and implicit attitudes? Standard varieties’ evaluation in Luxembourg and Belgium.
	14:10–14:45	Jelovšek, Alenka (Ljubljana): Slovenian Norms of Address in the First Half of the 19 th Century: between Purism and Politeness.	Godard, Thomas (Nottingham): Le génie de la langue in the codification of Standard English.
	14:45–15:15	Coffee
	15:15–15:50	Scherr, Elisabeth (Graz): The illusion of a standard language – Theoretical and empirical challenges for describing “grammatical norms” in spoken German.	Van Rooy, Raf (Leuven): From koine to standard: the early modern origin of a key metalinguistic term.
	15:50–16:25	Meulen, Marten van der (Nijmegen): Usage as norm in 20th century Dutch prescriptivism.	Włoskowicz, Wojciech (Cracow): Toponymic norm and toponymic usus as factors, instruments, and constraints in language and name policy.
	16:25–17:00	Epelde, Irantzu (Bayonne): A successful attempt of standardisation: the case of Basque.	Stojanov, Tomislav (Zagreb): The Croatian Language Policy Development 1985-1989.
17:00–17.30	Coffee & Farewell		