

Double Standards: Codified norms and norms of usage in European languages (1600 – 2020)

21 – 22 April 2022, University of Salzburg, Unipark Nonntal, Erzabt-Klotz-Straße 1, First Floor

Programme

Thursday, 21. April	09:00-09:30	Welcome address and Introduction
		Room: 1.006/1.007
	09:30-10:30	Plenary talk – Wendy Ayres-Bennett (University of Cambridge, UK): The French tradition: double standards?
		Room: 1.006/1.007
	10:30-11:00	Coffee
		Section 1: Standard Norms and Standard Usage(s)	Section 2: (Standard) Language Ideologies, Language Policies – Theoretical and Methodological Implications of standardization
		Room: 1.006/1.007	Room: 1.009
	11:00-11:35	Hübner, Julia (Hamburg): Between codified norms and norms of usage. Normativity in multilingual textbooks of the early modern period	Moser, Ann-Marie / Seiler, Guido (Zürich): How to do standard without dialect features: a third kind of dedialectization
	11:35-12:10	Lismont, Eline / Vosters, Rik (Brussels): Codified norms and their relationship to usage in Dutch: spelling versus morphosyntax	Pickl, Simon (Salzburg): Standardization as a one-way road? Relativizers and shifting stylistic models in the standardization of German
	12:10-14:00	Lunch
	14:00-14:35	Włoskowicz, Wojciech (Cracow): Toponymic norm and toponymic usus as factors, instruments, and constraints in language and name policy	Pröll, Simon (Munich): The two faces of Standard German: structural consequences of nativisation
	14:35-15:10	Fidlerová, Alena A (Prague): Which Standard for Modern Czech(s)?	Niehaus, Konstantin (Salzburg): On the asymmetric enregistering of ‘Austrian German’ and ‘German German’
15:10-15:40	Coffee
15:40-16:40	Plenary talk – Rik Vosters (Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium): Standardization and prescriptivism: from the historical sociolinguistics of Dutch towards a comparative view
	Room: 1.006/1.007
19:00	Conference Dinner: Augustiner Braugasthof Krimpelstätter, Müllner Hauptstraße 31

Double Standards: Codified norms and norms of usage in European languages (1600 – 2020)

21 – 22 April 2022, University of Salzburg, Unipark Nonntal, Erzabt-Klotz-Straße 1, First Floor

Friday, 22. April	09:00-10:00	Plenary talk – Monika Wingender (Gießen, Germany): Types of Slavic standard languages – with a focus on the Russian standard between mono- and pluricentricity Room: 1.006/1.007
	10:00-10:25	Coffee
		Section 1: Standard Norms and Standard Usage(s) Room: 1.006/1.007	Section 2: (Standard) Language Ideologies, Language Policies – Theoretical and Methodological Implications of standardization Room: 1.003
	10:25-11:00	Rutten, Gijsbert (Leiden): Community norms in a diaglossic universe	Starčević, Anđel / Kapović, Mate / Sarić, Daliborka (Zagreb): The one and only : Prescriptivism and mono-ideologies of language
	11:00-11:35	Calafat Vila, Rosa (Palma de Mallorca): Linguistic usage, purism and ideology. The Catalan language on social media	Dovalil, Vít (Prague): Standard varieties as dynamic phenomena. A contribution to the methodological debate
	11:35-12:10	Scherr, Elisabeth (Graz): The illusion of a standard language – Theoretical and empirical challenges for describing “grammatical norms” in spoken German
	12:10-14:00	Lunch
		Section 1: Standard Norms and Standard Usage(s) Room: 1.006/1.007	Section 2: (Standard) Language Ideologies, Language Policies – Theoretical and Methodological Implications of standardization Room: 1.003
	14:00-14:35	Vari, Judit (Constance): Norms of usage and codified norms manifesting in explicit and implicit attitudes? Standard varieties’ evaluation in Luxembourg and Belgium	Caro Reina, Javier (Cologne): The definite article with personal names in French and Spanish: a Non-Standard Average European feature?
	14:35-15:10	Tacke, Felix (Bonn): A corpus-driven approach to emerging oral standards in Spanish	Grochowska-Reiter, Anna (Poznań): Nutro or nutrisco? Italian third conjugation: a diachronic glimpse at its standard(s) from 1400 to modern times
	15:10-15:40	Information on conference volume and farewell Room: 1.006/1.007
	15:40-16:10	Coffee	